THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS, LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE SERVICE, Washington, D.C., August 5, 1971.

To: The Honorable William S. Moorhead, (Attention: William G. Phillips, staff director.)

From: Lynne Kennedy, bibliographer in government and law, Library Services Division.

Subject: Government secrecy and news management by the Government, 1961-71: a selected bibliography.

This bibliography includes selected references to material on subjects related to the Freedom of Information Act, such as secrecy in government, the right to know, news management, the credibility gap, and so forth. A separate bibliography on the act itself will be sent under separate cover. This report covers the years from 1961 to the present, covering the administrations of Presidents Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon. Material covering the executive privilege of withholding information from Congress has been excluded. News management has been interpreted to mean government restrictions on the dissemination of information to the press and the public. Criticisms of the media's presentation of the news have been excluded. Although the Pentagon papers controversy is too recent to have generated much substantial material, we have included several representative articles.

The bibliography includes references to books, reports, Government documents, periodical articles (including law journals), and a few newspaper articles. Two publications of the Freedom of Information Center at the University of Missouri are essential to a thorough study of this topic. They are the bi-monthly FOI Digest which began publication in 1959 and the Freedom of Information Center Reports, which are usually six- or eight-page studies which are published once or twice a month. The Library of Congress receives both these publications, and several relevant reports are included in the attached bibliography.

Citations to items which are in the classified collections of the Library of Congress include the Library's call number. A number of unclassified items are held in the Law Library at the Library of Congress. This is shown by the designation "Law" in the citation. Most magazine articles are provided with the call number for the bound volumes of the magazine regardless of whether the issues cited have actually been bound at this time. Unbound issues will be found in the newspaper and current periodical reading room.
